What You Need To Do To Get Started

Read the following descriptions and check all of the programs for which you would like to apply. Fill out this form or have someone else fill it out for you.

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

☐ Helps buy food. (Formerly known as the Food Stamp Program)

Child Care Subsidy

☐ Helps pay child care costs for your child so you can work, go to school, or attend training.

Health Care Coverage - SoonerCare (Medicaid)

- ☐ Helps pay for medical costs for people who are elderly or disabled.
- ☐ Helps pay for nursing care in your home (ADvantage) or in a nursing home.

- ☐ Helps pay Medicare Part A and B premiums.
- ☐ State Supplemental Payment (SSP) - gives a small cash payment to low-income people who are disabled, blind, or 65 years of age or older and receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Social Security disability income.

Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)

- ☐ Helps low-income families with minor children by providing temporary cash and services.

Diversion Assistance

- ☐ Provides one-time assistance to help low-income families with minor children pay for immediate needs related to getting or keeping a job. This assistance is provided instead of TANF based on funding availability.

Your Rights

When you ask for help from Oklahoma Human Services (OKDHS), you have a right to:

- file an incomplete application by filling out the contact information under Incomplete Application on the first page, signing your name on the signature line, and submitting the information to OKDHS;
- have SNAP food benefits, TANF, or SSP cash assistance benefits start from the date of application, if eligible;
- have child care benefits start from the date you complete an interview and provide all necessary proof, if eligible
- receive help from OKDHS in completing the application or in getting the proof you need to be approved;
- have your application processed timely or receive notice explaining the reason for delay;
- have information you give to OKDHS kept confidential;
- receive equal treatment regardless of race, color, age, sex (including gender identity and orientation), disability, religious creed, political belief, or national origin and to file a civil rights complaint if you think you were discriminated against; and
- ask for a fair hearing, either orally or in writing, if you disagree with any action taken on your case. Any person you choose may represent you at the hearing.

Households Eligible to Get a Food Benefit Decision Faster

Households entitled to a decision within seven calendar days regarding their food benefit application are:

Tell Us About Everyone Who Lives in the Home Starting With the Adult Head of Household (Applicant)

The head of household is an adult living in the home. When there are children in the home, it is best to choose the children's parent or the adult who has parental control over the children. This person will be the payee/applicant. You must check yes or no in the U.S. citizen block and fill in the Social Security number for each person who wants benefits. If there are more than six persons in your household, attach another sheet of paper showing their information. Providing race and ethnic background information is voluntary and does not affect your eligibility or benefit amount. Reporting this information assures that program benefits are distributed without regard to race, color, or national origin. The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) requires us to answer these questions for you if you do not provide this information.

In accordance with federal civil rights law and US Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), religious creed, disability, age, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program conducted or funded by the USDA. Programs that receive federal financial assistance from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), such as Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), and programs HHS directly operates are also prohibited from discrimination under federal civil rights laws and HHS regulations.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language) should contact the agency (state or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing, or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLAINTS INVOLVING USDA PROGRAMS

USDA provides federal financial assistance for many food security and hunger reduction programs such as the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), the Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR) and others. To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, \(AD-3027\) (found online at: How to File a Complaint, and at any USDA office) or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992.

Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

- (1) mail: Food and Nutrition Service, USDA
1320 Braddock Place, Room 334,

Alexandria, VA 22314; or

(2) fax: (833) 256-1665 or (202) 690-7442; or

(3) phone: (833) 620-1071; or

(4) email: FNSCIVILRIGHTSCOMPLAINTS@usda.gov

For any other information dealing with SNAP issues, persons should either contact the USDA SNAP hotline number at (800) 221-5689, which is also in Spanish or call the state information/hotline numbers (click the link for a listing of hotline numbers by state); found online at SNAP hotline.

CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLAINTS INVOLVING HHS PROGRAMS

HHS provides federal financial assistance for many programs to enhance health and well-being, including TANF, Head Start, the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP), and others. If you believe that you have been discriminated against because of your race, color, national origin, disability, age, sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation, and gender identity), or religion in programs or activities that HHS directly operates or to which HHS provides federal financial assistance, you may file a complaint with the Office for Civil Rights (OCR) for yourself or for someone else.

To file a complaint of discrimination regarding a program receiving federal financial assistance through HHS, complete the form online through OCR's Complaint Portal at <https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/>. You may also contact OCR via mail at: Centralized Case Management Operations, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Room 509F HHH Bldg., Washington, D.C. 20201; fax: (202) 619-3818; or email: OCRmail@hhs.gov. For faster processing, we encourage you to use the OCR online portal to file complaints rather than filing via mail. Persons who need assistance with filing a civil rights complaint can email OCR at OCRMail@hhs.gov or call OCR toll-free at 1-800-368-1019, TDD 1-800-537-7697. For persons who are deaf, hard of hearing, or have speech difficulties, please dial 7-1-1 to access telecommunications relay services. We also provide alternative formats (such as Braille and large print), auxiliary aids and language assistance services free of charge for filing a complaint.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.
