CIVIL RIGHTS:

In accordance with federal civil rights laws and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Programs that receive federal financial assistance from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), such as Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), and programs HHS directly operates are also prohibited from discrimination under federal civil rights laws and HHS regulations.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language), should contact the agency (state or local) where they applied for benefits. RELEASE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION:

Subject to certain limited exceptions, the information you provide is kept confidential. Information may be disclosed to other federal and state agencies for official examination and to law enforcement officials for the purpose of apprehending persons fleeing to avoid the law. A violation of these confidentiality requirements is a "misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than six months, a fine of not more than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750), or both." W.S. 42-4-112(c)

DFS may give the information you provide, without your consent, in the following circumstances:

- 1) To federal, state or local authorities responsible for administering or enforcing the regulations of the program for which you apply or receive benefits. These authorities may begin an investigation or bring civil or criminal action on the basis of the information received regarding your case.
- 2) To a court, judge, or other administrative legal body, but only when the information is required in a civil or criminal proceeding.

ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING:

If you disagree with any action taken by DFS, you may request an administrative hearing. Prior to the hearing, you may wish to participate in a pre-hearing conference to discuss the disagreement. A hearing may be requested orally or in writing. An informal conference is optional and in no way will delay or replace the fair hearing process. For SNAP, if you request the administrative hearing within ten (10) days of being notified, you may request for the action to not take place until the administrative hearing has been held and a decision has been made. For POWER, if you request an administrative hearing, the action taken on the case will remain in place until the administrative hearing has been held and a decision has been made. If you do not request an administrative hearing on POWER within 30 days, or SNAP within 90 days, your request will be denied. The local DFS field service office will help you in arranging for a local conference or in making a request for an administrative hearing with the State. You may be represented by a lawyer, relative, friend, other person, or you may represent yourself. If you hire a lawyer, you must pay all the legal charges.

If your household is granted a continuation of benefits may have to pay them back if the hearing upholds the original agency action per 7 CFR 273.12(e)(6). If you want to discuss our decision or ask any questions about how an administrative hearing works, contact us. You may also call the local Legal Services Office to find out if free legal advice is available. 7 CFR 273.12; 7 CFR 273.15, P.L. 104-193, as amended, W.S. 42-2-102, 42-2-103, 42-2-104, 42-2-106, 42-2-109, 42-2-112, 42-2-202, 42-2-106, ARW POWER, Chapter 1.
